As We Are

Where We Are

As We Are With Our President

In one of her books, Addressed to Youth, published thirteen years ago, Sister M. Madeleva wrote, "Youth should learn to seek and to love God in the surpassing beauty of earth. Then it will wish to dedicate its own beauty to God. The world and the flesh and the devil should not be given the right of way in this, God's peculiar domain."

This year has taken us far toward the perfect fulfillment of our president's ideal. In our new fine arts building, Moreau Hall, we find a shrine to the beauty of God as humanly expressed in Christian art.

Mr. Robert Speaight, left, English author, actor, and producer who directed Saint Mary's production of Midsummer Night's Dream, celebrates the spring publication of his new biography, The Life of Hilaire Belloc with an autograph party in Stapleton Lounge. Sister M. Madeleva, president of Saint Mary's College, admires the manuscript which the author has contributed to the college collection. Georgia Weber, center, who played Helena in Midsummer Night's Dream described her work with Mr. Speaight as "a wonderful experience".

Sister Maria Pieta, vice-president of the College, chats with fellow-speakers at a South Bend Human Relations meeting.

Sister M. Alma, dean of studies, explains the new curriculum card procedure to juniors Mary Muflur and Mary Ruth Hurley.

Sister M. Gertrude Anne, registrar, straightens out a schedule conflict for sophomores Carol Lucas and Ann Meagher.

Sister M. Joanice pauses momentarily in her duties as dean of freshmen to answer a student query.

South Bend Applauds

NBC Opera-Premiere 'A Brilliant Event'

By HENRY BUTLER
Times Staff Writer

As We Are in Fine Arts

O'Laughlin Auditorium was formally opened with the NBC Opera Company's world première performance of The Marriage of Figaro on October 11, 1956.

Opening With Opera

Sister M. Madeleva and Mayor Edward F. Voorde of South Bend make final plans.

Town and

Plans for the formal opening of O'Laughlin Auditorium and Moreau Hall coincided with those made by NBC to send their opera company on tour across the country.

Cooperating with Saint Mary's, the South Bend-Mishawaka Citizens Committee composed of prominent citizens and businessmen, was successful in bringing the company to campus for their première performance.

Acclaimed in nationally known magazines and newspapers, the event was a significant landmark for NBC's purpose of familiarizing American audiences with opera and establishing a high precedent for the future of fine arts in the Midwest.

Gown Opera

In town and on campus, students shared in the planning and preparation for the opera company's arrival. Here day students Elizabeth Mahler, Mary Corbett, and Marilyn Volz distribute posters to the merchants of South Bend.

Jean Giddens, Judith Hankes, Mary Beth Schaeffer, Mary Alice Scuderi, Genevieve Meade, and Margaret Smith presented a student program, Figures in Figaro, to acquaint opera-goers with the background, signifi-cance and music of the opera before the performance.

County and Company Open Opera Week

Members of the NBC Opera Company were greeted at the St. Joseph County Airport by the mayors of South Bend and Mishawaka and prominent area citizens. Before proceeding to Saint Mary's campus the Honorable Albert L. Doyle of Mishawaka presented Alfred E. Stern, vice-president of NBC Theatrical Division with the key to the city. A motorcade with police escort transported the company to Saint Mary's campus.

On The Way

Time magazine said of the arrival of the NBC Opera Company: "The band played, floats lined the streets, a mob jammed the station and cheered. South Bend, Indiana was out in force to greet the NBC Opera Company as if it were a conquering football team."

Prominent among South Bend businessmen who opened a week of hospitality to the company were the personnel of the Oliver Hotel who gave a dinner in their honor the evening of their arrival. Present at the dinner were Saint Mary's students and representative citizens of the Michiana area.

UNITED

So This Is Saint Mary's!

Upon arrival on campus Sister Madeleva, president, Sister Mary Immaculate, program chairman, and Sister Maria Pieta, vice-president joyfully welcomed Alfred E. Stern, vice-president of NBC Theatrical Division, Chandler Cowles, manager of the company, and Samuel Chotzinoff, producer.

The Honorable Edward F. Voorde personally greeted Peyton Deatrick, son of Adelaide Bishop who sang Susanna in The Marriage of Figaro. Miss Ruth Kobart who played Marcellina, Figaro's mother, and Sister Maria Pieta look on. Little Peyton played the son of Cio Cio San in the opera, Madam Butterfly, which was also presented on the tour following the première at Saint Mary's.

Won't You Come In?

Students who could not resist the preview publicity chose a favorite artist for special "protection" and patronage during the company's stay on campus. As a group they called themselves Guardian Angels. Here company members, each introduced by an Angel, enter the portals of O'Laughlin Auditorium.

Sister Mariam Patrick, faculty director of the Guardian Angels, escorts Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Chotzinoff into O'Laughlin Auditorium.

How It Works

What goes on in the weeks of rehearsal before an opening night?

During the days the NBC Opera Company spent on campus before the world première, students had an opportunity to become acquainted with artists behind-the-scenes. Graciously explaining intricate techniques and problems of professional productions, the opera company endeared themselves to the heart of Saint Mary's.

Adelaide Bishop, Phyllis Curtin, and Ralph Herbert rehearse a scene from The Marriage of Figaro.

The final dress rehearsal show Miss Bishop, Miss Curtin, and Mr. Herbert transformed into the well-known characters of Susanna, the Countess, and Figaro as they will appear the night of the world première.

Something New
In Dress Rehearsals

Students from the Michiana area as well as from Saint Mary's and Notre Dame eagerly attended dress rehearsals of The Marriage of Figaro before the world première.

Arriving in front of O'Laughlin Auditorium for a dress rehearsal is a South Bend student, Gretchen Rauch and her escort.

Figaro In Preview

The final dress rehearsal for students was second in magnificance only to the première. The color and zest of the superb cast was matched only by the enthusiasm of the students as Figaro became a long anticipated reality to the delighted audience.

Luigi Vellucci sang the comic role of Basilio, the music master.

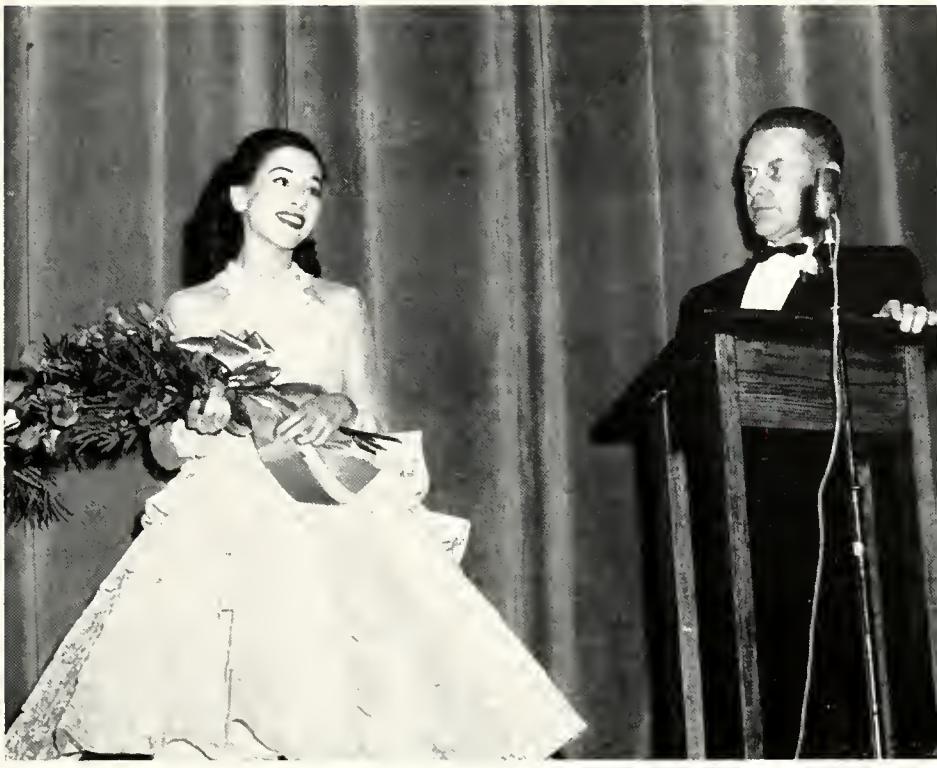

Figaro and Susanna, played by Ralph Herbert and Adelaide Bishop, seem pleased that the Countess Almaviva (Phyllis Curtin) has become reconciled with the Count.

Opening Night - - - October 11

The opening of the Midwest's newest fine arts center dramatically coincided with the opening of the NBC Opera Company's tour. For the first time in this country a full opera company of high artistic reputation brought complete opera on tour to American audiences everywhere.

Miss Elaine Malbin, the Cio Cio San of Madam Butterfly (presented on December return of the company) represented the cast on the opening night of Figaro. Miss Malbin is shown with John A. Scott, former mayor of South Bend, who acted as chairman on the occasion.

Debate

Saint Mary's newly formed debate team began its tournament season last November with the annual Butler University Debate Tournament in Indianapolis. The four-girl team took fifth place among the twenty-three schools participating. The season continued with further tournaments at Northwestern University, Purdue, University of Illinois at Navy Pier in Chicago, and Case Institute in Cleveland, Ohio.

The season was culminated with an exhibition debate between Saint Mary's and Columbia University in the Little Theater.

Christian Culture

Under the direction of Dr. Bruno Schlesinger, the department of Christian Culture was created at Saint Mary's last year. This major is designed to give the student an understanding of the origin, development, and achievements of Christian culture as the historic basis of Western Civilization. Fifteen juniors are studying this new course, and many sophomores have selected it as their major field next year. In March, the Lilly Foundation gave a grant of $20,000 for the advancement of the course. Below, Miss Condit, guest lecturer at colloquium, and Dr. Schlesinger discuss Latin hymns with Peggy McCarthy, Paula Lawton, Rosemary Corcoran, Betsy Evans, Rosemary Andrew, Gloria Vidotto and Ann Harris.

In Print

Evelyn Werner and Monica McCauley, co-editors of Blue Mantle, examine the growing file of yearbook copy.

Layout demands cooperation, as Barbara Barker, Mary Ann O'Laughlin, Marita Reising, Gretchen House, Beth Kamm and Marge Smith have discovered.

Kay Hardesty, Evelyn Werner, Mary Jo Walsh, Mary Needler and Kay Flinn of Static staff, give their own work a critical examination.

The Chimes staff, Liz Jarboe, Mary Carpenter, Diane Wilkinson, Connie Baird, Pat O'Shea and Fran Tetaz complete the last pages of the spring issue.

To Mary

Dear Girl, — and if this hour

Must have farewell,

Then let it be in parable.

As through the sanctuary of your life one passed,

Into your white soul's treasury she cast

For dower

The substance of her living, all she had,

And giving her few small mites to you, was glad.

Class Officers

As We Planned It

The Night Before Christmas

Above—Kay Duffy and Lee Sheftic star in "The Long Christmas Dinner" by Thornton Wilder, this year's Christmas play.

Top—Kathryn Kramper leads a group of juniors in carols at Candlelight ceremony.

Center—The juniors enjoy the fruits of their long preparation preceding the Christmas dinner.

Bottom—Mary Jo Walsh, Helen Cavanaugh, Kay Hardesty, and Evelyn Werner meet under the holly wreath that the junior class president has put in holiday place.

Girls choose their bids from the low-hanging star at the Charity Ball.

Diane Donovan, Jody Donahoe, Rosie Knope, Monica McCauley, Regina Scannel and Carole Nordengren admire the Christmas tree decorated by the freshman according to time honored tradition in the Great Hall.

Sno Foolin'

. . . but the snow did fool the SMC'ers and stayed in the sky for the two February weekends of Winter Carnival. The afternoon was filled with the sophomore show and games of chance in the clubhouse, while the evening of dancing was highlighted by the traditional crowning of Mary of the Snows by chairman Marie Malek. Both weekends were a success, and that's Sno Foolin'!

Girls and their dates try for the lucky number in a clubhouse game after the show.

Dee Reynolds joins in the singing around the piano after dinner.

Appetites, whetted by an afternoon outdoors, are soon satisfied by the dinner served in the Rec.

In Mardi Gras

Kathy McCoach pauses for a coke with some friends between shows.

Marie Lyman watches "the system" in action at the dice table.

"Place your bets!" shouts the ND barker to Terry Dittrich and Carol Cruise.

"And that's what I like 'bout the South," sings Captain Molly Bolster to Emmy Sniffen and Sue Brown.

Betty Drey, Eleanor Hankes and Lois Presten swing into a fast step in their "Down Yonder" chorus dance.

Kay Bowling takes her date's advice and puts all her money on number ten.

Sue Brown wins a little money before the first Saint Mary's show.

Parent Week-end

1—Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Brazzel and daughter Virginia. 2—Captain and Mrs. T. L. Greene and Mary Lou. 3—Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Hahn and Beverly chat with Sister Sophia. 4—Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Root with their daughter, Marcia. 5—Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Donovan, Diane and Pat. 6—Mr. and Mrs. Edwin P. Walters and daughter, Arline, meet "big Sister" Pat Kennedy and Mrs. Andrew Kennedy. 7—Parents, students and faculty enjoy dinner together. 8—Mrs. Andrew Ewald with her daughter Mary Ann, general chairman of the Variety Show. 9—Dinner on campus for parents and students. 10—Parents and faculty meet in Stapleton Lounge. 11—Mary Kay Carroll and Virginia Vighi pour at the tea. 12—"Bless us, O Lord, and these, Thy gifts . . ." 13—A proud father signs the guest book in the Great Hall. 14—Mr. and Mrs. Deneen Ashley visit with their daughter, Mary Lou. 15—Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Langwasser and their daughter, Mary Lou.

Here We Are

...Showing Off

"Manhattan Madcaps" brought us on a whirlwind tour of New York nightlife. From sundown when "Work Day's Over" until "Another New Day" began, we were taken from Fifth Avenue to Greenwich Village with many interesting stops in between.

TAXI

In Sports

A tense moment for the seniors as they battle the freshmen in the volleyball tournament.

Gen Perri and Kate Queally await their turn at bat while teammates Karen Eustice and Helen Werner work hard on the diamond.

SMC on the hockey field.

Opposite page

Waiting for the volley are sophomores Karen Eustice and Barbara Burke.

Hannah Grasberger and Bain Eichelberger stand by as Julie Dittoe and Pat Hurley jump for the rebound.

"I told you we should've brought more than one ball," mumbles Pat Bauervic to her roommate, Gene Haenn.

As Mary Baker and Jan Feldpausch watch, Kathy Reichert puts her number three wood to good use.

Campus

Rita Andreas, queen of the sophomore cotillion, "Shall We Dance."

Jean Heidt, queen of the junior prom, "Mood Jasmine."

Queens

Jody Donohoe, queen of senior ball, "Premier."

Kathy Abrott, queen of the freshman formal, "Fantasia."

Senior Informals

Maureen Butler, Sarah Jo Trippel and Eva Haas admire a snow scene in a library window.

Thankful for the new Rec addition are Patricia Michalski, Mary Beth Jones, Katie Reasor, Mary Jane Schoen and Nancy Frank.

Charlotte Keefe, Barbara Greary, and Paula Rochon hope Carole Keefe won't tumble.

Listening to Belafonte on the new hi-fi set in East Parlors are Marita Reising, Margaret Murray, Mary Smith and Beth Kamm.

Returning from a walk in the rain are Pat Tyner and Carole Harnist.

How could the seniors lose with cheerleaders like Anne Barnes, Frances Cappabianca and Shirley Fitzekam?

Jean Giddens, Ann Schultheis, Carol Braunsdorf settle down for an hour of T.V. while Virginia Vighi adjusts the set.

While Martha Foley and Marianne McCrudden chat with friends across the Dixie, Pat Mason and Gay Dicerto wait patiently in line.

Tuning in WSND's "Dixie Special" are Viola Kovacs, Ouida Smith and Therese Kachur.

Elizabeth McCorkle, Marilyn Stupek, Judy Weidner and Mary Kay Starshak take a last minute glance in the mirror before curtain time in O'Laughlin.

Julie Bohan points out a Static scoop to Nancy Vivian, Audrey Schallerer and Carolyn Dill.

Admiring the view from Moreau Hall are Mary Carole Soetje, Mary Comisky, Joanne Francel and Margaret Gulde.

Anne Milnamow and Mary Baker are outnumbered by Mary Camblin, Bane Eichelberger and Mary Jo Cleary in a snowball fight in front of Le Mans.

Taking their turn at Saturday night Dance Duty in East Parlors are Mary Kay Carroll, Loral Baker, Nancy Brozovich and Anne White.

On their way up are Mary Needler and Mary Jo Long.

The first spring leaves are a welcome sight to Julie Knape, Mary Guarnieri, Shirley Chiavetta, Kay Howard and Marge Menard.

Memorable Events

The Freshmen brought Duke Ellington.

"Thank you so much, Mr. Cerf," says Kathy.

"It is more blessed to give than to receive," second Ann and Mary.

A great moment for Isabel and Florence as they point with pride to their new Ghana flag.

As We Are . . .

Off Guard

Georgia's date meets an old friend . . . Is he late again, Nancy?
Stag or Drag? . . . Hey, Marge, you're getting soap in my eyes!

"How about a ham sandwich, Mrs. Creighton," ask Pat and Sue. . . . Pat and Regina find the place for quiet (?) study. . . . You say you took typing in summer school, Mary? . . . Gee, Ellen, some people have all the luck. . . . Bus strike, Harriet? . . . The "Old Grey Mares" turn out to root for their team. . . . Looks like Barb, Sandra, Marie, Louisa and Nancy have hit the sophomore slump. . . . "All the comforts of home in Regina," say Barb, Harriet, Gretchen and Charlene. . . . "Would you please limit your call" pleads Paula.

You can't have too much of that chicken, Mr. Bogart. . . . Take your time, Jackie, Julie advises. . . . The piece de resistance. . . . "Then add just a dash of bitters," explains Ann's date. . . . Don't believe him, Emmy! . . . Gay and Ann get ready for opening night.

Lobbyists in action. . . . Show them how it's done, Jan. . . . Nina finishes a letter home. . . . Watch out, Ann! . . . Two unsung heroes of Carousel: Terry and Carol. . . . "Is this a College or a Country Club?" ask Sue, Jerry, Gene and Carol. . . . Jan, Kay, Diane, Mariam and Skip: a few of the sophomore "Rec Rats".

Marian Anderson,
world-famous contralto.

Louisa M. Jenkins,
Catholic artist especially distinguished for mosaics.

Honorary Degrees

Marion McCandless,
Catholic alumnae leader.
